

Being More than Christian: Healing from Sin

1 Peter 2:1-5,23-25 (NLT)

So get rid of all evil behavior. Be done with all deceit, hypocrisy, jealousy, and all unkind speech. ²Like newborn babies, you must crave pure spiritual milk so that you will grow into a full experience of salvation. Cry out for this nourishment, ³now that you have had a taste of the Lord's kindness.

⁴You are coming to Christ, who is the living cornerstone of God's temple. He was rejected by people, but he was chosen by God for great honor.

⁵And you are living stones that God is building into his spiritual temple. What's more, you are his holy priests. Through the mediation of Jesus Christ, you offer spiritual sacrifices that please God. He did not retaliate when he was insulted, nor threaten revenge when he suffered. He left his case in the hands of God, who always judges fairly.

²⁴He personally carried our sins in his body on the cross so that we can be dead to sin and live for what is right. By his wounds you are healed.

²⁵Once you were like sheep who wandered away. But now you have turned to your Shepherd, the Guardian of your souls.

Upcoming Services

November 3—Veterans Day Service—Thanking God for our veterans. Please invite a veteran to join you for this special service.

November 10—At the 11AM service, Bob & Mardi Welo will be renewing their vows for their 50th anniversary. The renewal will take place towards the end of the service and you are invited to join them in their celebration in the COC afterwards. The theme of this service will be how marriage reflects the relationship between Christ and the church.

The altar flowers this morning are in loving memory of her dear husband, Jack Fields from his wife, Ada.
